Students must choose a 15-SHC Business Administration concentration: Accounting, Finance & Economics, Management, or Marketing.

The B.S. in Business Administration is available only to students in the traditional day program on campus.

The B.S. in Business Management, a separate major, is available only to students in the Adult & Graduate Studies program and is offered both on and off campus.

Students may take NCCCS courses in any term (ACA 122, ENG 111, and ENG 112 excepted), provided they satisfy specified requirements before transfer to MHU.
