Broadmoor Golf Links is located in the greater Asheville area in Fletcher, N.C. Scenery from the Blue Ridge Mountains and the French Broad River Valley create a beautiful backdrop for your golf experience. Broadmoor is a championship golf course designed by noted golf course architect Karl Litten – recognized alongside Nicklaus, Palmer, and Fazio by the PGA as one of golf's fab four designers. Litten is famous for designs that are all unique. His courses do not have the same "signature" qualities, making each course a hand crafted work of art. Broadmoor Golf Links is also designed to be enjoyed in 4 hours, whether you like to ride or walk. With tees measuring from 5600 to over 7000 yards, Broadmoor appeals to every level of golfer. Broadmoor's clubhouse features spacious accommodations to enjoy after a day on the links.

Broadmoor Golf Links

Broadmoor is this region's only links style course and has no housing or out of bounds on any of the holes. Bentgrass greens, Bermuda fairways and bluegrass/fescue rough offer premium playing surfaces. The course stretches to 7140 yards in length from the gold markers, but also offers three other tee options – Blue (6569 yards) White (5881 yards) and Red (5082 yards). This layout calls for creativity and imagination that will require many different kinds of shots. From challenging carries over water, to low bump and run shots on some of our bunkerless greens, Broadmoor is a test of shot making abilities. Since Broadmoor is a links style, mountain course, it seems there is always a breeze to contend with in the river valley!
