DIRECTOR

Chandler Smith has been a professional theatre artist since 2002. As an actor he has performed Off-Broadway and in regional theatres all over the country. As a voice over artist, his voice can be heard on over 150 national and local Voice Over spots. Since the pandemic began, his Writing/Directorial efforts in the Murder Mystery genre have generated over a million dollars in ticket sales in multiple venues throughout the South East. After nearly a decade of residence in New York City he now lives in the woods with his wife Charlotte and their farm animals. Special thanks to

Working with this group of talented young professionals has been such a gift. These students are the future of the art form and I feel extremely grateful to have crossed paths with them during this process. I would like to dedicate this performance to C. Robert Jones, Neil St. Clair, Mike and Angela of The Great Smoky Mountain Murder Mystery Dinner Show in Pigeon Forge TN, to my parents (who met during the first few days of their freshmen year as Mars Hill College students), and most importantly to Charlotte. My forever plus one.

It is the opening night of MidEvil Crimes Dinner Show in the James Thomas Blackbox Theatre on the campus of Mars Hill University. With only a short time until the show begins the director, cast, crew and chef are trying to figure out how to “pull it off.” Things get even trickier once they find someone has been murdered
